Portrait and Fashion Photographer

Born and raised in the Free state and spend his last 18 years in Pretoria. Being a professional photographer the last 12 years of his life. He loves a very natural look, with an eye for detail and beauty, creating unique images for clients across the genres of weddings, fashion, portrait, lifestyle, events and corporate photography. With a great understanding of light and experience working with people, it is always a positive and fun experience shooting with him. With a great passion for people, photography and a need to travel he shoots national and international across the board. He loves a new challenge and exploring new horizons. Being a positive and very ethical person, he is very proud of his personal image and work and always make sure he understands and satisfy his client's needs and visions.
